

The relaxing of the FCC rules over broadcast ownership is one of the most pathetic decisions I have ever been privy to witness. How can the democratic values of free speech, alternative press, religious freedom and the right to choose what we watch, read and listen to be served by such a ruling? I would like to say thank you to Cmmr. Adelstein and Cmmr. Copps for their openness and hard work and time investment in undertaking this battle.